HISTORY MADE THE WINE, AND ITS WINE WILL MAKE HISTORY

The wines called Roma were of very large consumption in the ancient times, and their export was so prolific that the town of Ostia became a wine emporium. Later, with the crisis of the Roman Empire and due to wars, administrative instability and heavy taxes, vine was eradicated; only later the Emperor Theodosius got the viticulture back to be a fundamental part of commerce, and source of strong profits. Moreover, "Rome" was the adjective that indicated the origin and the quality of a kind of wine: today "Roma" is a DOC that classifies wines produced in a delimited area.

The most recent of Lazio's denominations, includes one of the most important historical territories, from ancient wine traditions and from the mineral strength of the earth shaped by the Latium Volcano.

Our Roma Doc are an expressive focus of all this; wines from bright and deep colour, with dark and mineral olfactory sensations, and from the aromatic strength of the varieties composing the blend.

Roma Bianco echoes the luxury and splendor of the times of Ancient Rome. The Roma Doc Bianco is produced from Malvasia Puntinata and Bombino, raised on the volcanic soils of the Castelli Romani, that are also among the main grapes for the production of the Frascati Superiore Docg. They are ancient and very interesting varieties for their aromatic quality and mineral expression, giving a bright color to the wines, a great flavor and at the same time structure and softness.

The Riserva of Roma Doc by Poggio Le Volpi is our highest expression of denomination. Montepulciano, Cabernet Franc and Merlot grapes come from the same vineyards of the Roma Doc Red, but only the best bunches compete for its production. After this meticulous selection, the fermentation is carried out in steel at controlled temperature, followed by refining for about one year in barriques. The wine is produced in very few numbers, which aspires to become a point of reference for the denomination and the poster child flagship for the company productions. Roma Doc Riserva is a wine with bright, deep and intense color, dark olfactory sensations, and an aromatic strength of the wine varietals that make up the blend.
